

THE CHAT ABOUT.

SHORT TALKS OF THE SCRIBES OF COUNTRY PRESS.

The Brunswick Line Meeting in the Matter of Freight—A Bad Boy's Exploit—Dickinson County—Children Suffered with Gunpowder—Boy Killing Accidents.

A meeting will be held in Atlanta on Friday next, at all parties interested in freights along the Brunswick division of the East Tennessee and Georgia railroad for some time past have been holding meetings to protest against the way of carrying their products.

In view of the fact that the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia rail road for some time past have been holding meetings to protest against the way of carrying their products.

The object of the meeting is thus stated: "In view of the fact that the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia rail road for some time past have been holding meetings to protest against the way of carrying their products."

The Iulin Post complains that "if this marrying business continues, matrimonial timer will begin to get tolerably scarce in this country."

Looking ahead to the Christmas Holidays the Iulin Post says:

"Many a dollar will be spent in sprees during Christmas, if it will be appropriately used."

It is told on Judge Simmons, of Sparta, that after the fire was extinguished last Wednesday night he regretted the amount of water thrown on the cotton for fear that "it would injure the staple."

The Gibson Enterprise says that a young man in Glencoe tried to punch a rabbit out of a hollow log with a gun the other day. The rabbit came out and so did the gun—some of it. And that young man will never make his sister mad by blowing his nose with his fingers any more because he has no thumb to catch hold of his nose, and if he had, he has no nose to catch hold of.

One of the parties interested reveals the fact that many complaints have been made as to the handling of lumber, etc. For the last few months there have been about one hundred and forty thousand dollars worth of lumber.

The complaints come mostly from the producers, who have great difficulty in securing transportation to Savannah and Brunswick.

The greatest trouble is experienced at the latter place. When cars are asked for, it is stated, no attention is paid to the request, and when they are finally secured and loaded there is much difficulty in having them moved. There are a large number of cars standing on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia rail road tracks waiting to be moved either to Savannah or Brunswick, and great inconvenience and even loss is experienced by mill-owners and other producers along the line by this delay.

J. A. McKnight, a colored schoolteacher of McWheefer county, has recently finished a large and complete school building, which has been handsomely painted.

Franklin, in Washington county, accidentally shot Tootha Turner in the forehead, on Saturday evening last, killing her. Both are colored.

Unknown parties made two attempts to break into the residence of Mrs. E. A. Nash, at Riddleville, one night last week.

George McCue, of McDowell county, who shot and dangerously wounded Mr. Louis Lovett some months ago, was tried for assault with intent to maim and received.

Mrs. James Williams was arrested in Thomson on Saturday by order of Mr. Goodey, of Crawfordville. Not long since Williams used insulting language to Mr. Goodey, who said:

"We wish to do Mr. Sidney J. Johnson, of West Point, justice to state he was not the Mr. Johnson who furnished the social sensation over in DeSoto Monday morning. The Mr. Johnson you speak of is my son-in-law, Mr. S. J. Johnson, the engineer, and who is also a member of the DeSoto city council. His wife, who raised the disturbance is a very clever young man. But he slipped up badly last Monday, and I expect he will be tried for assault."

The new school house in Cartersville will be ready for occupancy by the middle of January.

E. S. V. Bryant, of Gainesville, was married to Miss Jennie Cox, of Louisville, on Sunday the 14th instant, Rev. Luke Robinson officiating.

Dublin Post: On the east side of the Oconee river, about seven miles from this place, a old gentleman by the name of Ma has

He has been living in that community on a few years. It was his painful duty, on Friday last, to witness the interment of his son, Mr. Marc Mabbs, who died of pneumonia on Wednesday last. On Saturday evening at 10 p.m., a daughter, Mrs. Lula Walker, came to the home of the deceased, and according to the old gentleman's grief-stricken husband and about a year ago, and now an orphan child is thrown upon the merciless world for protection. Only a few weeks ago she was in town and was to have been married to a man of considerable means in the estate of her deceased husband.

Mrs. Lou Mabbs, a daughter, and Mrs. Mabbs' husband, Mr. W. H. Mabbs, a colored man, are both dangerously ill with pneumonia, and the cold fingers of death is hourly expected to grip them. They are in great pain, and it may be death in death. This unfortunate couple deserve the sympathy and aid of the entire community in their sad affliction.

On Saturday evening, the 14th instant, to the residence of Mrs. Ivey McGinnis on Cartersville, fight with, it is said, the full intention of robbing the old lady, but luckily Mr. Jesse Bellflower was there and the would-be robbers found it out before they entered and left. Mrs. McGinnis had a safe or her deceased husband's effects on that day and the parties entertained an idea that she had the money about the house. One of them left a false face, made of blue calico, at the fence as he was leaving. No cues as to the guilty parties.

A fourteen year old son of Mr. James Payne, of Wilkinson county, in company with several men, however, last Tuesday, to Mr. Aaron Carr's place, in that county, where he was to have a sale there on that day. Finding there would be no sale, they went over to the barroom, where they supplied themselves with whisky. On their way home young Payne put spurs to his horse and was seen out of sight. About a half mile away the men came upon him lying by the roadside, with blood flowing from his nose and ears. In plunging his spur to the horse the boy lost his balance, which he never regained, keeping his spur to the horse's side as long as he stayed on him. His companions took him up and carried him home, where he was lying at the point of death, having undergone three days after receiving his injury. He has not spoken a word, and his recovery is extremely doubtful. His father is said to be a local preacher, and he's surely grieved over his boy's conduct.

A short time ago a little son of Mr. Zeph Bowmar, who lives six or seven miles southwest of Hamilton, was, with other children playing with gunpowder, when it exploded in his face and put out both his eyes. The little fellow is about four years old.

Two of Elberton's old landmarks and best citizens, whose names are William Willis and William Baier, are in very critical health.

Elberton residents have bought and shipped 700 bushels of cotton this season.

In all the Princeton factory hands have left, a majority going to Clarksville. The mills are closed, with no prospect of business being resumed.

Phil Jackson, of Lee county, while killing hogs Saturday, happened to a serious accident. He had shot one, and while climbing on the pen to shoot another, the gun, a breech-loading shotgun, was accidentally discharged, the shot passing through his wrist and several striking his face.

On Saturday evening a westbound train on the Air-Line railroad ran over and killed a year-old child, Mr. Rufus Hardin, near Black's station.

Mr. Finch, of Stewart county, a well-to-do good farmer, has a young cow of the native variety which had dropped two calves inside of twelve months.

Mr. E. C. Jones of Harris county, killed a pig last week that netted 233 pounds. Mrs. Cowart killed one nearly as large.

On Wednesday night last, Mr. Jas. W. Jones, living near Talbot, and one of the most successful farmers in Talbot county, had his gin house consumed by fire. He had in the gin house and around the screen about 22 bales of cotton. When he discovered the rush to the scene and when he arrived, it was too late, all of cotton before help arrived. It was a tragic act, and when his neighbor arrived, they found him almost overcome by the exhaustion and heat. There were six bales of cotton burned and the bagged corn duff still among some. Of the six consumed Mr. Jones only lost one, we learn, and the others were the property of his brother and a neighbor. Mr. Jones is one of the most energetic men in the state, and the entire county will regret to hear of his misfortune.

McLaws Still Helpful.

Savannah, Ga., December 18.—[Special.]—General McLaws, our worthy postmaster, has returned from Washington. He is looking well, serene and placid, and does not seem to be very apprehensive of being speedily turned out of his place.

TOPICS FROM THE PRESS.

Stray Notes of Georgia Life and Manners—Two Deceitful One-Shots.

Mr. John Hall, of Covington, while hunting last Friday, killed two deer by one fortunate shot. A deer was standing with a fawn on either side of her, when the fatal shot brought down the deer and one fawn.

Dr. Hall of Newnan received the other day a duplicate marriage fee from a gentleman who was joined in wedlock by him several years ago. Upon being asked why the fee was duplicated, he replied: "It turned out so much better than I anticipated."

The Iulin Post complains that "if this marrying business continues, matrimonial timer will begin to get tolerably scarce in this country."

Looking ahead to the Christmas Holidays the Iulin Post says:

"Many a dollar will be spent in sprees during Christmas, if it will be appropriately used."

It is told on Judge Simmons, of Sparta, that after the fire was extinguished last Wednesday night he regretted the amount of water thrown on the cotton for fear that "it would injure the staple."

The Gibson Enterprise says that a young man in Glencoe tried to punch a rabbit out of a hollow log with a gun the other day. The rabbit came out and so did the gun—some of it. And that young man will never make his sister mad by blowing his nose with his fingers any more because he has no thumb to catch hold of his nose, and if he had, he has no nose to catch hold of.

There are over four hundred delinquent tax payers in Laurens county.

Talbotton Era: Dr. F. C. Ellison, of Flint Hill, was in town Saturday and donne one of Curley's remodeling jobs. At least he was a fine old man, but he was not quite as active as he used to look as good as new. Dr. Ellison is one of the cleverest men in Georgia, and the only objection we have to him is that he is an old bachelor.

THE MCGAULEY MURDER.

Another Version of the Jefferson County Tragedy.

From the Warrington, Ga., Clipper.

Nease's Place, in Jefferson county, on Saturday morning, was the scene of a dark and bloody murder. Mr. A. J. McCauley, a well-known citizen of Warren county, residing in the neighborhood of Brier Creek church, was the victim. The air is thick with rumors as to how he died, and the whole affair seems to be shrouded in an impenetrable veil of mystery.

Learning that Mrs. McCauley, the colored schoolteacher of McWheefer county, has recently finished a large and complete school building, which has been handsomely painted.

George McCue, of McDowell county, who shot and dangerously wounded Mr. Louis Lovett some months ago, was tried for assault with intent to maim and received.

Mrs. James Williams was arrested in Thomson on Saturday by order of Mr. Goodey, of Crawfordville. Not long since Williams used insulting language to Mr. Goodey, who said:

"We wish to do Mr. Sidney J. Johnson, of West Point, justice to state he was not the Mr. Johnson who furnished the social sensation over in DeSoto Monday morning. The Mr. Johnson you speak of is my son-in-law, Mr. S. J. Johnson, the engineer, and who is also a member of the DeSoto city council. The Mr. Johnson who raised the disturbance is a very clever young man. But he slipped up badly last Monday, and I expect he will be tried for assault."

The new school house in Cartersville will be ready for occupancy by the middle of January.

E. S. V. Bryant, of Gainesville, was married to Miss Jennie Cox, of Louisville, on Sunday the 14th instant, Rev. Luke Robinson officiating.

Dublin Post: On the east side of the Oconee river, about seven miles from this place, a old gentleman by the name of Ma has

He has been living in that community on a few years. It was his painful duty, on Friday last, to witness the interment of his son, Mr. Marc Mabbs, who died of pneumonia on Wednesday last. On Saturday evening at 10 p.m., a daughter, Mrs. Lula Walker, came to the home of the deceased, and according to the old gentleman's grief-stricken husband and about a year ago, and now an orphan child is thrown upon the merciless world for protection. Only a few weeks ago she was in town and was to have been married to a man of considerable means in the estate of her deceased husband.

Mrs. Lou Mabbs, a daughter, and Mrs. Mabbs' husband, Mr. W. H. Mabbs, a colored man, are both dangerously ill with pneumonia, and the cold fingers of death is hourly expected to grip them. They are in great pain, and it may be death in death. This unfortunate couple deserve the sympathy and aid of the entire community in their sad affliction.

On Saturday evening, the 14th instant, to the residence of Mrs. Ivey McGinnis on Cartersville, fight with, it is said, the full intention of robbing the old lady, but luckily Mr. Jesse Bellflower was there and the would-be robbers found it out before they entered and left. Mrs. McGinnis had a safe or her deceased husband's effects on that day and the parties entertained an idea that she had the money about the house. One of them left a false face, made of blue calico, at the fence as he was leaving. No cues as to the guilty parties.

A fourteen year old son of Mr. James Payne, of Wilkinson county, in company with several men, however, last Tuesday, to Mr. Aaron Carr's place, in that county, where he was to have a sale there on that day. Finding there would be no sale, they went over to the barroom, where they supplied themselves with whisky. On their way home young Payne put spurs to his horse and was seen out of sight. About a half mile away the men came upon him lying by the roadside, with blood flowing from his nose and ears. In plunging his spur to the horse the boy lost his balance, which he never regained, keeping his spur to the horse's side as long as he stayed on him. His companions took him up and carried him home, where he was lying at the point of death, having undergone three days after receiving his injury. He has not spoken a word, and his recovery is extremely doubtful. His father is said to be a local preacher, and he's surely grieved over his boy's conduct.

A short time ago a little son of Mr. Zeph Bowmar, who lives six or seven miles southwest of Hamilton, was, with other children playing with gunpowder, when it exploded in his face and put out both his eyes. The little fellow is about four years old.

Two of Elberton's old landmarks and best citizens, whose names are William Willis and William Baier, are in very critical health.

Elberton residents have bought and shipped 700 bushels of cotton this season.

In all the Princeton factory hands have left, a majority going to Clarksville. The mills are closed, with no prospect of business being resumed.

Phil Jackson, of Lee county, while killing hogs Saturday, happened to a serious accident. He had shot one, and while climbing on the pen to shoot another, the gun, a breech-loading shotgun, was accidentally discharged, the shot passing through his wrist and several striking his face.

On Saturday evening a westbound train on the Air-Line railroad ran over and killed a year-old child, Mr. Rufus Hardin, near Black's station.

Mr. Finch, of Stewart county, a well-to-do good farmer, has a young cow of the native variety which had dropped two calves inside of twelve months.

Mr. E. C. Jones of Harris county, killed a pig last week that netted 233 pounds. Mrs. Cowart killed one nearly as large.

On Wednesday night last, Mr. Jas. W. Jones, living near Talbot, and one of the most successful farmers in Talbot county, had his gin house consumed by fire. He had in the gin house and around the screen about 22 bales of cotton. When he discovered the rush to the scene and when he arrived, it was too late, all of cotton before help arrived. It was a tragic act, and when his neighbor arrived, they found him almost overcome by the exhaustion and heat. There were six bales of cotton burned and the bagged corn duff still among some. Of the six consumed Mr. Jones only lost one, we learn, and the others were the property of his brother and a neighbor. Mr. Jones is one of the most energetic men in the state, and the entire county will regret to hear of his misfortune.

McLaws Still Helpful.

Savannah, Ga., December 18.—[Special.]—General McLaws, our worthy postmaster, has returned from Washington. He is looking well, serene and placid, and does not seem to be very apprehensive of being speedily turned out of his place.

EXPLOSION IN AUGUSTA.

THE WILKES-SON TRAGEDY BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN MURDER.

Three Fatal Wounds Found on the Dead Man—The Marriage Throughout the State—The Golden Wedding of Bishop Pierce's Sister—The Experts of Savannah.

AUGUSTA, Ga., December 18.—[Special]—At six o'clock to-night a terrible explosion occurred in Law & Son's drug store, caused by the careless pumping of chloroform or potash by a negro porter, Wm. H. Henton, when forbidden to do so. He was making chemicals, and as the chemist, Mr. Specht, had his side, the boy pounded the chemical. The explosion was immediate, and broke the boy's arm, cut his face badly and injured him seriously. He will perhaps die.

The explosion knocked down another porter, Henderson, and Chemist Specht, a little distance off. The mortar in which chemicals were resting was blown up through the counter, and the glass was broken. Manager Sam Shepard was not far off, and says that the explosion, while serious, is an accident which could happen any day by carelessness in handling chemicals.

THE WILKERSON TRAGEDY.

Evidence Accumulated to Prove that the Wilkersons are Murderers.

ATHENS, Ga., December 18.—[Special]—Mr. Raleigh Wilkerston brought down yesterday the body of his brother, that was found in Madison county. The coroner held an inquest over the remains, and the verdict of the jury was that the deceased came to his death from excessive drink and exposure to the weather. Several witnesses were examined, and one of them testified that he heard some yelling out the night previous: "Take them off; they are killing me." When the remains were brought to Athens Dr. Gedline was called in, and stripping the body gave it a careful examination.

At the appointed time Prof. A. G. Gedline, with a bow, a fife, an organ, a drum and a bugle, marched up the steps of the courthouse, and the crowd of spectators followed him. The organist played "God Save the Queen," and the bugler sounded "Taps." The band struck up "The Star-Spangled Banner," and the band struck up "The Star-Spangled Banner."

At the appointed time Prof. A. G. Gedline, with a bow, a fife, an organ, a drum and a bugle, marched up the steps of the courthouse, and the crowd of spectators followed him. The organist played "God Save the Queen," and the bugler sounded "Taps." The band struck up "The Star-Spangled Banner," and the band struck up "The Star-Spangled Banner."

At the appointed time Prof. A. G. Gedline, with a bow, a fife, an organ, a drum and a bugle, marched up the steps of the courthouse, and the crowd of spectators followed him. The organist played "God Save the Queen," and the bugler sounded "Taps." The band struck up "The Star-Spangled Banner," and the band struck up "The Star-Spangled Banner."

At the appointed time Prof. A. G. Gedline, with a bow, a fife, an organ, a drum and a bugle, marched up the steps of the courthouse, and the crowd of spectators followed him. The organist played "God Save the Queen," and the bugler sounded "Taps." The band struck up "The Star-Spangled Banner," and the band struck up "The Star-Spangled Banner."

At the appointed time Prof. A. G. Gedline, with a bow, a fife, an organ, a drum and a bugle, marched up the steps of the courthouse, and the crowd of spectators followed him. The organist played "God Save the Queen," and the bugler sounded "Taps." The band struck up "The Star-Spangled Banner," and the band struck up "The Star-Spangled Banner."

1885.

THE CONSTITUTION. ATLANTA, GA., FRIDAY DECEMBER 19 1884.

3 are now receiving a large the old reliable

ER'S ALMANAC
FOR 1885.

The names of our custo-printed on them. We will be pleased to have your at once that we may the Almanacs with goods have freight.

OUR STOCK

very large and embraces thing in our line, and or-committed to our care will promptly dispatched at
s. competing with any ern market.
The great advantages of a home market cannot be ed. Our customers are led thereby to order in quantities, just such as they need, saving the use of keeping up a large as they are forced to do drawing their supplies a distant market. Bes many conveniences they fully five per cent in a s business on all Patent cunes bought of us, as we them at New York prices, ave you freight. A fair ideration of these facts will us your orders.

We do a large business with eral-store merchants and a full line of such goods
hey need:
such's Soda in kegs and cases ight's " " " Land's " " " am Tartar, Com' and S.P. ing Powders.

Laundry Soaps--large stock.
Toilet " " Laundry Starch, " " corn Starch. " uppers.
son Salt.

Favoring Extracts and Es-ences and many other goods
this class.

DRUGS, MEDICINES, &amp;c.

In this department we are ll stocked with goods from the leading manufacturers.

We carry a full line of Pills, id Extracts and other ods of ike Davis & Co.
m. S. Merrill Chem. Co.
den & Co.
m. R. Warner & Co.

Onion Sets.

We are receiving a stock of ice Sets, and in the proper ason shall handle Buists's and er Garden Seeds largely.
nd us your orders and save ight.

ACIDS.

We buy in car-load lots and ll quote very low prices on lphuric, Muriatic and Nitric cids. Also,

aints, Oils, Turpentine, arnishes, and anything in the int line. Favor us with your ders and mention Almanacs.

We are still Headquarters for Louis

Red Seal Lead

and Pure Unadulterated INSEED OIL.

Remember, we sell exclusively at wholesale and do not mpete with those who buy us.

amar, Rankin & Lamar, 40 & 42 WALL ST.

THE LEGISLATURE.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE.

The Two Houses Met and Proceeded with the Business in Hand--The Roll Called for the Introduction of New Matter--A Number of Bills Introduced and Read.

The senate met yesterday at ten o'clock, and the session was opened as usual.

Reports were made from standing committees by Mr. Falligant, of the committee on special judiciary; Mr. Cabaniss, of the committee on general judiciary; Mr. Hoyle, of the committee on temperature; Mr. Davidson, of the committee on finance.

A message was received from the house notifying the senate of the passage of certain bills.

Mr. Maddox offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the senate and the house concurring remit back to the financial committees of said bodies respectively, the appropriation bill and tax act for further consideration.

Mr. Thornton wanted to know the object of such action.

Mr. Maddox said:

I desire to say, to use a slang expression,
we have gotten into a kink, and a serious one at that, and in order to get out of it, we have got to remit these bills. We have appropriated some of it illegally, and we have got to straighten that out.

The resolution was adopted and ordered transmitted at once to the house.

Judge M. L. Mershon was invited to a seat on the floor of the senate.

On motion of Mr. Brown, house bills were read a second time.

On motion of Mr. Maddox, house bills were taken up for a first reading and the following were read and referred to committees:

To amend section 3947 of the code.

To amend section 1881 of the code.

To provide compensation for election managers in Washington county.

To provide for the franchises to post notices when trains are behind time.

To amend section 3, article 7, paragraph 15, of the constitution.

To amend the act regulating the service of tally jurors.

To incorporate the Macon city and suburban street railroad company.

Mr. Northern, of the committee on education, made a report on certain bills.

The house reported the passage of resolutions for the appointment of committees of conference on the appropriation and tax bills.
The resolution for the appointment of the finance committee on the conference committee was agreed to.

The senate agreed and appointed that committee to act.

A large number of bills were read a second time.

On motion of Mr. Davidson, the bill to grant the charter of the town of Conyers was laid on the table.

The bond bill was taken up for a third reading.

The bill was amended slightly and passed.

The senate then went into executive session and confirmed G. M. T. Ware judge of the court of Wayne county.

The senate then adjourned to meet at three o'clock.

ATTEMPTED SESSION.

The senate met at three o'clock p.m.

A number of bills were read a second time.

Bills were taken up for a third reading, and the following were read:

To incorporate the town of Harmony Grove.
Passed.

To amend the charter of West End, in Fulton-ton county, so as to enlarge the powers of the town council. Passed.

To prohibit the sale of whisky in Fayette county. Passed.

To amend the charter of the town of Clarkesville, in Habersham county. Passed.

To prohibit the sale of liquor in Habersham
county. Passed.

To carry into effect the last clause of paragraph 1, section 1, article 7 of the constitution.

This bill provided that confederate soldiers who had had a limb or limbs amputated since the war by reason of wounds received in the war should receive the benefits of the leg and arm fund.

Mr. McBride moved to amend so as to let the benefits extend to soldiers who have lost
the use of limbs.

The amendment provoked a lively discussion,
and was finally lost by a vote of 19 to 18.

The bill was passed and Mr. Thornton gave notice that he would on to-day move to reconsider the bill on account of the defeat of Mr.
McBride's amendment.

The senate then adjourned to meet at three o'clock.

ATTEMPTED SESSION.

The senate met at three o'clock p.m.

A number of bills were read a second time.

Bills were taken up for a third reading, and the following were read:

To incorporate the town of Harmony Grove.
Passed.

To amend the charter of West End, in Fulton-ton county, so as to enlarge the powers of the town council. Passed.

To prohibit the sale of whisky in Fayette
county. Passed.

To amend the charter of the town of Clarkes-
ville, in Habersham county. Passed.

To prohibit the sale of liquor in Habersham
county. Passed.

To carry into effect the last clause of paragraph 1, section 1, article 7 of the constitution.

This bill provided that confederate soldiers
who had had a limb or limbs amputated since
the war by reason of wounds received in the war should receive the benefits of the leg and arm fund.

Mr. McBride moved to amend so as to let the benefits extend to soldiers who have lost
the use of limbs.

The amendment provoked a lively discussion,
and was finally lost by a vote of 19 to 18.

The bill was passed and Mr. Thornton gave notice that he would on to-day move to reconsider the bill on account of the defeat of Mr.
McBride's amendment.

The senate then adjourned to meet at three o'clock.

ATTEMPTED SESSION.

The senate met at three o'clock p.m.

A number of bills were read a second time.

Bills were taken up for a third reading, and the following were read:

To incorporate the town of Harmony Grove.
Passed.

To amend the charter of West End, in Fulton-ton county, so as to enlarge the powers of the town council. Passed.

To prohibit the sale of whisky in Fayette
county. Passed.

To amend the charter of the town of Clarkesville, in Habersham county. Passed.

To prohibit the sale of liquor in Habersham
county. Passed.

To carry into effect the last clause of paragraph 1, section 1, article 7 of the constitution.

This bill provided that confederate soldiers
who had had a limb or limbs amputated since
the war by reason of wounds received in the war should receive the benefits of the leg and arm fund.

Mr. McBride moved to amend so as to let the benefits extend to soldiers who have lost
the use of limbs.

The amendment provoked a lively discussion,
and was finally lost by a vote of 19 to 18.

The bill was passed and Mr. Thornton gave notice that he would on to-day move to reconsider the bill on account of the defeat of Mr.
McBride's amendment.

The senate then adjourned to meet at three o'clock.

ATTEMPTED SESSION.

The senate met at three o'clock p.m.

A number of bills were read a second time.

Bills were taken up for a third reading, and the following were read:

To incorporate the town of Harmony Grove.
Passed.

To amend the charter of West End, in Fulton-ton county, so as to enlarge the powers of the town council. Passed.

To prohibit the sale of whisky in Fayette
county. Passed.

To amend the charter of the town of Clarkesville, in Habersham county. Passed.

To prohibit the sale of liquor in Habersham
county. Passed.

To carry into effect the last clause of paragraph 1, section 1, article 7 of the constitution.

This bill provided that confederate soldiers
who had had a limb or limbs amputated since
the war by reason of wounds received in the war should receive the benefits of the leg and arm fund.

Mr. McBride moved to amend so as to let the benefits extend to soldiers who have lost
the use of limbs.

The amendment provoked a lively discussion,
and was finally lost by a vote of 19 to 18.

The bill was passed and Mr. Thornton gave notice that he would on to-day move to reconsider the bill on account of the defeat of Mr.
McBride's amendment.

The senate then adjourned until nine a.m. to-day.

wes discussed. It would require unanimous consent to reconsider the bills. There would be a surplus in the treasury after paying $189, to the new capitol.

Mr. Harris said, with all due respect, that there could be no surplus.

Mr. Harris said that, with like respect, he should insist that there would be a surplus.
He is a safe and useful senator.

The Hon. O. B. Stevens, of Terrell, is one of the men in the house. Messrs. Hart and Lewis are both men of influence, weight and understanding, both in committee and on the floor. Greenwood is one of the best counties in the state, and her representatives are up to her dignity and worth.
It is not often that a county has two such admirable men.

The Hon. O. B. Stevens, of Terrell, is one of the men in the house. His constant attention, added to his fine ability and patriotic spirit, make him a valuable member of the house.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

Mr. Hart and Lewis are up to their
duty, and their constituents are well satisfied.

THE CONSTITUTION. FOR 1885.

The Constitution and the New Year—The Leading Southern Newspaper—Its Aims and Purposes—Outlook—The Great Weekly Edition.

THE CONSTITUTION will enter the new year in the full tide of prosperity, and better equipped than ever for advancing its place among the progressive journals of the country.

It is the aim of its publishers to make THE CONSTITUTION a necessity to every intelligent man within its territory. It is a newspaper above everything, and will maintain at any labor and cost its well-earned reputation for carrying the earliest news, in the best shape, to its army of readers. It is staunchly and steadfastly democratic, fighting always the battles of democracy and rejoicing in its victories. As the leading southern newspaper, its first allegiance is to the south—but readers everywhere may rely on finding it devoted to the interests of the whole country and to the wiping out of all sectional prejudice, or misunderstanding.

THE CONSTITUTION is printed every day in the year. It employs as staff-writers, or correspondents, the best talent available. Its system of news-gathering, tested by competition in many emergencies, is confessed to be unsurpassed by that of any journal in the country, and equalled by none within its territory. For the coming eventful year it will be better, stronger and brighter than ever, and will be an alert, intelligent and faithful companion for all men of all parties and all sections.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

For one year, every day in the year, $10. For six months, every day, $5. For three months, every day, $2.50. For one month, every day, $1. For one on all railroads, and at news-stands in principal cities at 5 cents a copy.

THE WEEKLY CONSTITUTION

One Dollar a Year in Clubs of Five.

THE WEEKLY CONSTITUTION is the cheapest paper in America. It consists of 12 pages, and is sold, in clubs of five subscribers, at $1 a year. During the present year its circulation has jumped from 8,000 to 23,000, and is increasing rapidly.

THE WEEKLY CONSTITUTION is carefully edited; every department is made up with care, and special writers employed for the treatment of special topics. Among these writers are "Bill Arp," "Uncle Remus" and "Betsey Hamilton." These writers, on rural life in the south, are without equals.

THE WEEKLY CONSTITUTION is a family paper in the best sense of the word. It is so made up as to interest every member of the family, and to insure its welcome at every fireside in the country.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

For one year, $1.25. In clubs of five or more, $1 each. In clubs of ten, $1 each, with an extra copy to the person getting up the club. Send for agent's outfit and specimen copies.

ATLANTA, DECEMBER 19, 1884.

THE CONSTITUTION AT NEW ORLEANS.

To accommodate the throng from this section, who will desire to read the home paper while attending the "World's Exposition" THE CONSTITUTION has been placed on sale in New Orleans at Geo. F. Wharton & Bro.'s, No. 5 Carondelet street between Canal and Common streets.

INDICATIONS for the south Atlantic states at 1 a. m.: partly cloudy weather, and local rains followed by fair weather, northerly winds, slight fall in temperature.

AFTER the ridiculous attempt of Senator Riddleberger, to defeat the confirmation of Secretary McCulloch, he must have felt his utter loneliness in recording his negative vote.

The Indianapolis Sentinel takes the laurel off the brow of the late lamented Munchausen, and places the same upon the seven and a quarter brain-pans of James G. Blaine. And yet a man cannot get justice in Indiana.

"We Laugh To-Night," was the very appropriate toast which S. S. Cox was called upon to elucidate at the democratic banquet in Washington city last night. It was such a laugh as has not been heard in twenty-five years, and will become the music of the union.

The newspapers which are so anxiously discussing Sam Randall on the one side, and Speaker Carlisle on the other, would do well to remember that both gentlemen are still fighting under the old flag, as they did on the fourth of November. Their appearance together at the demonstration in honor of Senator Gorman, should emphasize this fact.

GENERAL SWAIN grows more desperate as his trial progresses. He now tries to throw Bateman out of court by the assertion that he deceived his patrons by bogus market quotations. As Swain was a partner with Bateman in these transactions, it is plain that he convicts himself equally with Bateman. Swain was shoved into the position of judge advocate general of the army as a part of the Garfield wreck, and it is plain to see that he and Blaine were congenial bedfellows.

The newspapers on all sides are beating the senate out of its secrets, the latest work being that accomplished by the Herald and the Tribune, of New York. There is only one escape from such humiliation, and that is to unhang the doors of the senate chamber, and let the American people know what is going on. The people are sick of star-chamber methods, and are anxious to carry their own confidences, instead of having them stashed in the overcoat pockets of the old gentlemen who snooze while their secretaries note the contents.

The archbishop of New Orleans, upon being asked concerning the moral effect of keeping the exposition open on Sunday, unhesitatingly answers that after a man has joined in public worship to God, he could not spend the balance of the day better than in the improvement of his mind, and that in no way could more improvement be found in proportion to the time spent than in a visit to the exposition. As the exposition is largely under Catholic influence, this statement will most likely lead to the opening of its doors on Sunday.

THE CAPITOL BILL AND THE STATE.

The reconsideration of the bill appropriating $180,000 for carrying on the work on the capitol will result in stopping the work, unless the bill is passed by the senate.

This state of things will be very generally regretted. The state went into the project of building a capitol deliberately. It was postponed year after year, and finally passed by decisive majorities. The commissioners, acting under the letter and spirit of the bill, have made a contract. It is universally agreed that this contract is a good one. It is signed, sealed and delivered. The sacred faith of the state is pledged to it. It bears the governor's signature and the seal of the state. With faith in this, the contractors have spent about $100,000 and made nearly half a million dollars worth of contracts.

We do not believe the state can afford to openly violate this contract, sacredly made and entered into by the governor and the commissioners. If this contract is broken or impaired, it will be a grievous mistake. We are just about to put over $3,000,000 worth of state bonds on the market. With this contract broken or crippled, in full public view, no man will be sanguine enough to say that we can float our bonds at such low rates, or at such high prices as would be possible with the state's faith maintained and its contract carried through.

We do not care, however, to make an argument on this subject. Atlanta has done her duty, and her whole duty in the matter. She has paid every dollar that even a strained construction of the law could put upon her. In money or land she has paid $300,000 to the state—nearly half as much as the capitol will cost. She has done her duty, and she will stand by her record.

If the senate finds it proper to withdraw the appropriation permanently, she will try and stand her share of the racket that will ensue. We hope that the senators will find some way out of the present complication, and that the contract so solemnly and sacredly made, under special instruction of the legislature and specific sanction of the governor, will be carried out in the good faith that the humblest person has the right to expect and demand from the greatest state.

MR. RANDALL AND MR. WATTERSON.

Mr. Henry Watterson has done many quiet things, but about the quietest is his editorial on Mr. Randall's proposed visit to Louisville.

Mr. Randall came to Atlanta at the request of the republicans editors over the Sherman-Davis controversy. We have yet to learn what these persons expect to gain by it. If Mr. Davis was a conspirator does that make Blaine a pure man? It is said that Mr. Blaine's detectives have worked up every detail of the personal histories of the defendant in the libel suit and the leading editors of the Sentinel. The intimation is thrown out that some of this matter may find its way into print, in which event numbers of hearts are expected to bleed. A disappointed and revengeful man is capable of a good deal of mischief, and it may be that Mr. Blaine will seek to get even in this way. If he tries it he will receive rough treatment and less sympathy than he has encountered here.

THE NICARAGUAN TREATY.

In the entire list of one-sided and reckless treaties that President Arthur has laid before the Senate, Mr. Randall's is the only one that stands high in the estimation of his term of office, none equal in baseness and dangerous complications the Nicaraguan treaty. This is a treaty that binds the United States to construct a canal "with all possible dispatch," beginning at the port of San Juan de Nicaragua, better known as Greytown, intersecting the San Juan river above the Rio Colorado, thence running by the river to Lake Nicaragua, and across that lake to the mouth of the River del Medio, and thence to the Pacific ocean at the port of Brito. The route has been surveyed by Engineers Menocal of the United States navy, and the estimated cost is from $50,000,000 to $100,000,000—the latter sum probably being too high for any specific number of canals. Governor Blaine of Maine is equally indifferent.

We cannot believe that Mr. Beck or Mr. Carlisle authorized such an interpretation of Mr. Randall's visit, or such ill-mannered suggestions to the people of Kentucky, either directly or indirectly. Mr. Randall is a democratic leader. He stands high in the councils of the party. The New York Sun, the New York World, the Albany Argus, and other influential papers, declare that his wisdom, his influence and his ability saved the party, when it was otherwise doomed to defeat. It is this man, now, that Mr. Watterson insults, and childishly refuses to help entertain. And yet Mr. Watterson was one of the first and foremost men in entertaining General Grant when he visited Louisville.

We have no fear for Mr. Randall. Somebody in Louisville will give him something to eat. Somebody will provide a shelter for his weary head. Somebody will meet him at the depot, and show him the way up town. Somebody will speak to him as they pass by. Louisville is a well-mannered and high-minded city, and will appreciate Watterson to common-sense. In the meantime, Watterson is an ass. He is worse than that. He is a young ass!

THE SHERMAN-DAVIS CONTROVERSY.

We have been pulled to know what motive could induce General Sherman to charge Jefferson Davis with conspiring to make himself dictator of the confederacy. We are convinced now, however, that it was the general's intention to run the editors of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette distracted and then have them taken up and incarcerated in some comfortable lunatic asylum. Our readers will remember that some time ago, General Sherman woke up one morning and found himself engaged in a controversy with General H. V. Boynton, who was the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, which has since been consolidated with the Commercial. As we have frequently had occasion to observe, we have never admired Sherman's method of disposing of Boynton. It was brutal, to say the least. We do not remember the exact terms used by the general in characterizing Boynton, but he said he was something worse than a liar, and so left him. Boynton is still the Washington correspondent of the Commercial Gazette, and still rests under the imputation placed on him by General Sherman.

If it was the intention of the latter to aid the editors of the Commercial Gazette to make themselves ridiculous, he has succeeded admirably, for although he has not produced the alleged incriminating letters on which his charges against Mr. Davis are said to be based, Editor Halstead and Deacon Smith are engaged in firing tremendous volleys of broadsides at the ex-president of the confederacy, under such heads as the following: "A stinging stroke. George Sherman and the confederate conspiracy. He hangs Jeff Davis on a Sour Apple Tree, as He Goes Marching On."

This is very funny. One would suppose, from the anxiety republican editors and their howling brethren in other sections of the republic, that the question as to whether there was a conspiracy in the confederacy is a prime political issue of the greatest moment and importance. The truth is, it is of no importance whatever. Those who may suppose to be interested in the matter know that there was no such conspiracy as that charged by Sherman, but even if it were otherwise, it would be a matter not worth serious attention. In that whole unfortunate business in which we embarked with such a flourish of orators and editors, there is nothing worth remembering but the valor and devotion of the confederate troops, and in remembering this, we can afford to forget or ignore the mistakes of the men who assumed to be statesmen and leaders.

The ports on either side would be closed to us as soon as the enemies' ships could reach them. If we build the canal, in other words, we should create a navy that could cope with Great Britain's, and be ready to send as many troop ships to Nicaragua as France or any other power could dispatch. Before the country adopts such a policy, it should stop a while and think it over. Let the treaty therefore go over to the next congress.

Our Washington correspondent intimates that Messrs. Carlisle and Morrison are about to jump off Editor Watterson's jaunting-car. We are confident they can find a safe shelling.

* * * Your Uncle Allen G. Thurman would look well in a democratic cabinet. The country longs to see the red bandana at the front.

The Philadelphia Times has a new dress. It was neat before and it is neater now, being the handsomest newspaper in the country and one of the best edited.

ENGLAND has a vast empire in India, but she holds it by the joint power of her prestige and her army. Her tenure is not secure, and from information received through English sources it would appear that the conditions in India are decidedly unfavorable to tranquillity. That an island people, many thousands miles removed should conquer and overrun a vast country containing 200,000,000 inhabitants was a wonderful achievement. But whether it can be claimed as a permanent conquest remains to be seen. England is no longer mistress of the sea. She has lost her maritime empire.

Editorial and political writers in England are now fully responsible for the success or defeat of the confederate movement had larger troubles to contend with than history has made mention of. They were eager and impulsive, and the circumstances by which they were surrounded compelled them to make mistakes. Mr. Davis made mistakes and his opponents made mistakes; indeed, it was the era of mistakes and we have never been able to see any reasonable ground for clemency or leniency in either case.

Speculations are run in Arkansas as to who will succeed Senator Conger from Michigan still goes on, notwithstanding the emphatic denial of that gentleman of any intention of resigning. Hon. Cyrus G. Luces is the latest candidate mentioned.

Speculations are run in Arkansas as to who will succeed Senator Garland if he leaves the Senate before the 4th of March, it is thought probable that Governor Hughes may appoint General Tappan to the vacancy.

CANVASSING as to who shall succeed Senator Conger from Michigan still goes on, notwithstanding the emphatic denial of that gentleman of any intention of resigning. Hon. Cyrus G. Luces is the latest candidate mentioned.

Speculations are run in Arkansas as to who will succeed Senator Garland if he leaves the Senate before the 4th of March, it is thought probable that Governor Hughes may appoint General Tappan to the vacancy.

The outstanding claims against the long dead Freedmen's bank were in the hands of the ignorant political dupes who trusted the rogues, and to whom every dollar that was paid over was a loss. The bank is now in the hands of the honest and upright men who have bought up the claims.

The artistic and variegated silence of Bony Butler is just now one of the most interesting exhibitions before the country. It gains an added attraction from the fact that the whole act is performed by one man.

The Lord high chancellor of Great Britain is ex-officio the speaker of the house of lords.

He is also a member of the cabinet, and usually a peer, though there is nothing to prevent the speaker from naming a commander for the position.

He sits on the woodcock, and wears a wig and gown during every session. Members of the house, however, do not have the right to decide who has the floor, nor the right to demand order. He is a man of great tact and ability, and is well liked by all.

MISS ELLEN TERRY has driven the belles of Philadelphia perfectly wild with jealousy.

MISS LOUISA M. ALICOTT, with her little niece, is living for the winter in Boston in the house next door to Edwin Booth's on Chestnut street.

Mr. Blaine is understood to be on the war path.

He is visiting the scenes of his enemies and is ready to camp with the republican senate and see that none of those who sided and favored the Indianapolis Sentinel's alleged libel shall be confirmed for any office. It is said that Mr. Blaine's detectives have worked up every detail of the personal histories of the defendant in the libel suit and the leading editors of the Sentinel.

The intimation is thrown out that some of this matter may find its way into print, in which event numbers of hearts are expected to bleed.

A disappointed and revengeful man is capable of a good deal of mischief, and it may be that Mr. Blaine will seek to get even in this way. If he tries it he will receive rough treatment and less sympathy than he has encountered here.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

SIR MOSES MONTEFIORE's health is fully restored.

MISS ELLEN TERRY has driven the belles of Philadelphia perfectly wild with jealousy.

MISS LOUISA M. ALICOTT, with her little niece, is living for the winter in Boston in the house next door to Edwin Booth's on Chestnut street.

THE BOSTON GLOBE says that after Robert J. Burdette, the humorist, had lectured in that city the other night, one of his fair auditors remarked to her companion, "Isn't he just amazingly good?"

Mr. Blaine is understood to be on the war path.

He sits on the woodcock, and wears a wig and gown during every session. Members of the house, however, do not have the right to decide who has the floor, nor the right to demand order. He is a man of great tact and ability, and is well liked by all.

MISS ELLEN TERRY has driven the belles of Philadelphia perfectly wild with jealousy.

MISS LOUISA M. ALICOTT, with her little niece, is living for the winter in Boston in the house next door to Edwin Booth's on Chestnut street.

Mr. Blaine is understood to be on the war path.

He sits on the woodcock, and wears a wig and gown during every session. Members of the house, however, do not have the right to decide who has the floor, nor the right to demand order. He is a man of great tact and ability, and is well liked by all.

MISS ELLEN TERRY has driven the belles of Philadelphia perfectly wild with jealousy.

MISS LOUISA M. ALICOTT, with her little niece, is living for the winter in Boston in the house next door to Edwin Booth's on Chestnut street.

Mr. Blaine is understood to be on the war path.

He sits on the woodcock, and wears a wig and gown during every session. Members of the house, however, do not have the right to decide who has the floor, nor the right to demand order. He is a man of great tact and ability, and is well liked by all.

MISS ELLEN TERRY has driven the belles of Philadelphia perfectly wild with jealousy.

MISS LOUISA M. ALICOTT, with her little niece, is living for the winter in Boston in the house next door to Edwin Booth's on Chestnut street.

Mr. Blaine is understood to be on the war path.

He sits on the woodcock, and wears a wig and gown during every session. Members of the house, however, do not have the right to decide who has the floor, nor the right to demand order. He is a man of great tact and ability, and is well liked by all.

MISS ELLEN TERRY has driven the belles of Philadelphia perfectly wild with jealousy.

MISS LOUISA M. ALICOTT, with her little niece, is living for the winter in Boston in the house next door to Edwin Booth's on Chestnut street.

Mr. Blaine is understood to be on the war path.

He sits on the woodcock, and wears a wig and gown during every session. Members of the house, however, do not have the right to decide who has the floor, nor the right to demand order. He is a man of great tact and ability, and is well liked by all.

MISS ELLEN TERRY has driven the belles of Philadelphia perfectly wild with jealousy.

MISS LOUISA M. ALICOTT, with her little niece, is living for the winter in Boston in the house next door to Edwin Booth's on Chestnut street.

W. H. PATTERSON, BOND AND STOCK BROKER.

24 Pryor Street.

WANTED.

Georgia E. R. Stocks and Bonds, A. & W. P. R. Stock and Debentures. State of Georgia Bonds, Atlanta City Bonds, National City Bonds, Augusta City Bonds, Atlanta Gas Light Co. Stock, Empire Loan and Building Stock.

JAMES' BANK,

OPEN 8 to 4—EXCHANGE AND BANKING business; deals in stocks and bonds on commission; Accounts, mercantile and personal soliciting; money orders; allows interest on deposits at the rate of 4 per cent per annum; collections in the city made free of charge; I have given my attention to lending money in stead of speculating in stocks.

JOHN H. JAMES.

FINNIE AND COMMERCE

Bonds, Stocks and Money.

CONSTITUTION OFFICE

ATTA., December 13, 1884.

Money is plentiful at unchanged rates. New York exchange buying at 3% discount and par selling at premium.

STATE AND CITY BONDS.

Bid Asked.

Ga. 6%.....	105	107	108	109
7%.....	108	110	111	112
Ga. 7%.....	110	112	114	116
Ga. 7%.....	112	114	116	118
Ga. 7%.....	114	116	118	120
Ga. 7%.....	116	118	120	122
Ga. 7%.....	118	120	122	124
Ga. 7%.....	120	122	124	126
Ga. 7%.....	122	124	126	128
Ga. 7%.....	124	126	128	130
Ga. 7%.....	126	128	130	132
Ga. 7%.....	128	130	132	134
Ga. 7%.....	130	132	134	136
Ga. 7%.....	132	134	136	138
Ga. 7%.....	134	136	138	140
Ga. 7%.....	136	138	140	142
Ga. 7%.....	138	140	142	144
Ga. 7%.....	140	142	144	146
Ga. 7%.....	142	144	146	148
Ga. 7%.....	144	146	148	150
Ga. 7%.....	146	148	150	152
Ga. 7%.....	148	150	152	154
Ga. 7%.....	150	152	154	156
Ga. 7%.....	152	154	156	158
Ga. 7%.....	154	156	158	160
Ga. 7%.....	156	158	160	162
Ga. 7%.....	158	160	162	164
Ga. 7%.....	160	162	164	166
Ga. 7%.....	162	164	166	168
Ga. 7%.....	164	166	168	170
Ga. 7%.....	166	168	170	172
Ga. 7%.....	168	170	172	174
Ga. 7%.....	170	172	174	176
Ga. 7%.....	172	174	176	178
Ga. 7%.....	174	176	178	180
Ga. 7%.....	176	178	180	182
Ga. 7%.....	178	180	182	184
Ga. 7%.....	180	182	184	186
Ga. 7%.....	182	184	186	188
Ga. 7%.....	184	186	188	190
Ga. 7%.....	186	188	190	192
Ga. 7%.....	188	190	192	194
Ga. 7%.....	190	192	194	196
Ga. 7%.....	192	194	196	198
Ga. 7%.....	194	196	198	200
Ga. 7%.....	196	198	200	202
Ga. 7%.....	198	200	202	204
Ga. 7%.....	200	202	204	206
Ga. 7%.....	202	204	206	208
Ga. 7%.....	204	206	208	210
Ga. 7%.....	206	208	210	212
Ga. 7%.....	208	210	212	214
Ga. 7%.....	210	212	214	216
Ga. 7%.....	212	214	216	218
Ga. 7%.....	214	216	218	220
Ga. 7%.....	216	218	220	222
Ga. 7%.....	218	220	222	224
Ga. 7%.....	220	222	224	226
Ga. 7%.....	222	224	226	228
Ga. 7%.....	224	226	228	230
Ga. 7%.....	226	228	230	232
Ga. 7%.....	228	230	232	234
Ga. 7%.....	230	232	234	236
Ga. 7%.....	232	234	236	238
Ga. 7%.....	234	236	238	240
Ga. 7%.....	236	238	240	242
Ga. 7%.....	238	240	242	244
Ga. 7%.....	240	242	244	246
Ga. 7%.....	242	244	246	248
Ga. 7%.....	244	246	248	250
Ga. 7%.....	246	248	250	252
Ga. 7%.....	248	250	252	254
Ga. 7%.....	250	252	254	256
Ga. 7%.....	252	254	256	258
Ga. 7%.....	254	256	258	260
Ga. 7%.....	256	258	260	262
Ga. 7%.....	258	260	262	264
Ga. 7%.....	260	262	264	266
Ga. 7%.....	262	264	266	268
Ga. 7%.....	264	266	268	270
Ga. 7%.....	266	268	270	272
Ga. 7%.....	268	270	272	274
Ga. 7%.....	270	272	274	276
Ga. 7%.....	272	274	276	278
Ga. 7%.....	274	276	278	280
Ga. 7%.....	276	278	280	282
Ga. 7%.....	278	280	282	284
Ga. 7%.....	280	282	284	286
Ga. 7%.....	282	284	286	288
Ga. 7%.....	284	286	288	290
Ga. 7%.....	286	288	290	292
Ga. 7%.....	288	290	292	294
Ga. 7%.....	290	292	294	296
Ga. 7%.....	292	294	296	298
Ga. 7%.....	294	296	298	300
Ga. 7%.....	296	298	300	302
Ga. 7%.....	298	300	302	304
Ga. 7%.....	300	302	304	306
Ga. 7%.....	302	304	306	308
Ga. 7%.....	304	306	308	310
Ga. 7%.....	306	308	310	312
Ga. 7%.....	308	310	312	314
Ga. 7%.....	310	312	314	316
Ga. 7%.....	312	314	316	318
Ga. 7%.....	314	316	318	320
Ga. 7%.....	316	318	320	322
Ga. 7%.....	318	320	322	324
Ga. 7%.....	320	322	324	326
Ga. 7%.....	322	324	326	328
Ga. 7%.....	324	326	328	330
Ga. 7%.....	326	328	330	332
Ga. 7%.....	328	330	332	334
Ga. 7%.....	330	332	334	336
Ga. 7%.....	332	334	336	338
Ga. 7%.....	334	336	338	340
Ga. 7%.....	336	338	340	342
Ga. 7%.....	338	340	342	344
Ga. 7%.....	340	342	344	346
Ga. 7%.....	342	344	346	348
Ga. 7%.....	344	346	348	350
Ga. 7%.....	346	348	350	352
Ga. 7%.....	348	350	352	354
Ga. 7%.....	350	352	354	356
Ga. 7%.....	352	354	356	358
Ga. 7%.....	354	356	358	360
Ga. 7%.....	356	358	360	362
Ga. 7%.....	358	360	362	364
Ga. 7%.....	360	362	364	366
Ga. 7%.....	362	364	366	368
Ga. 7%.....	364	366	368	370
Ga. 7%.....	366	368	370	372
Ga. 7%.....	368	370	372	374
Ga. 7%.....	370	372	374	376
Ga. 7%.....	372	374	376	378
Ga. 7%.....	374	376	378	380
Ga. 7%.....	376	378	380	382
Ga. 7%.....	378	380	382	384
Ga. 7%.....	380	382	384	386
Ga. 7%.....	382	384	386	388
Ga. 7%.....	384	386	388	390
Ga. 7%.....	386	388	390	392
Ga. 7%.....	388	390	392	394

THROUGH THE CITY

EVENTS OF INTEREST GATHERED UP ABOUT TOWN.

Happenings Here and There in the Course, at the Capital, Around the Station House and on the Street. Minor News Notes Caught Up on the Sidewalk. Gossip in the Gutters.

Eddie Ray, of Baltimore, is in the city. The street sweeper moves every night now. Mayor-elect Hillyer's inaugural promises to be a fine one.

Demoralized water pipes will be abundant this morning.

Alderman Stockdell has returned from North Carolina.

Terry street citizens want some work on that thoroughfare.

The firemen are glad that they were not forced out yesterday.

There were three interments in Oakland cemetery yesterday.

A party of Atlantans will leave for New Orleans next Sunday.

The new theater was being set up at police headquarters yesterday.

The candidates for justice of the peace are mingling freely with the voters.

Already several business changes have been announced for the last of January.

The coal dealer was made happy yesterday. He said every thing was sold out.

Police traps applied at police headquarters for night for logging. They were accommodated.

Mr. S. H. Phelan has purchased Mr. A. O. May's place on Peachtree and not Captain Gay's place.

EDMONT AIR-LINE.

Richmond and Danville

RAILWAY SYSTEM.

Great Through Car Route

WITH DOUBLE DAILY TRAINS

AND THROUGH KEEPING CAR SERVICE COMPLETE

BETWEEN THE SOUTH AND NORTH 2 MILES SHORTER

AND HOURS QUICKER

Than any other route

Washington and the East.

And Danville Railroad Time

One Hour Faster Than Atlanta Time.

Mile and Express No. 51.

Effect, Oct. 12th.

Mail and Express No. 51.

Atlanta (City Time) 7:40 a.m. 5:00 p.m.

Atlanta (R. &amp; D. Time) 11:04 a.m. 8:41 p.m.

Lafayette 2:00 p.m. 12:35 a.m.

Greenville 6:30 p.m. 5:30 a.m.

Charlotte 6:30 p.m. 5:30 a.m.

Spartanburg 2:00 p.m. 12:35 a.m.

Greenvale 2:00 p.m. 9:30 a.m.

Danville 11:10 p.m. 11:20 a.m.

Athens 11:30 p.m. 11:45 a.m.

Buckville 2:00 p.m. 5:25 p.m.

Charlottesville 8:00 a.m. 10:25 p.m.

Washington 8:00 a.m. 10:25 p.m.

Baltimore 8:00 a.m. 10:25 p.m.

Philadelphia 12:45 p.m. 8:40 a.m.

New York 1:45 p.m. 8:40 a.m.

Boston 4:45 p.m. 8:40 a.m.

Chicago 6:45 p.m. 8:40 a.m.

Louisville 12:45 p.m. 11:25 a.m.

Buckville 2:00 p.m. 8:00 p.m.

Arrive Richmond 7:00 a.m. 4:58 p.m.

GAINESVILLE ACCOMMODATION—DAILY.

Leave Atlanta city the 6th.

Arrive Gainesville city time 6:00 a.m.

Arrive Atlanta 8:20 a.m.

IN 31 HOURS TRANSIT

ATLANTA TO NEW YORK.

Only Line Running Pullman Buffet and Sleep Car Photo Change, Atlanta to New York via Washington.

The second and numbers greater days in transit, Atlanta to New York has full Pullman or New Orleans to Washington, train number 1 has Pullman Buffet and Sleep Car Atlanta to New York.

No trains for Athens, Ga.

EXCEPT SUNDAY.

A Wild Car on the Air Line Road Results

IN A LAW SUIT.

Mr. Albert Cox, as attorney for Robert Daniel, who lives in the Dahlia county line, yesterday filed a suit in the Fulton superior court against the Air Line railroad. During the month of August, 1883, Daniel was an engineer on the Air Line road. One day as his train was going north a flat car which was loaded with lumber ran into the track. The train started off. At first the car moved very slow down the grade, but at each revolution of the wheels its motion became swifter, until finally it was cleaving the air. For three miles the car shot ahead at a terrific speed. There was nothing it could do to stop it. It came up to a bridge and seeing it impossible to escape the collision, sprang to the ground. He landed fairly upon his feet but before he could escape, the wild car struck his engine and the lumber with which it was loaded went through his body. The engineers in the case insist that Mr. Daniel was seriously injured by the accident that he had never been able to raise one of his hands to his head since and has been invited to attend, will make the occasion thoroughly enjoyable.

A STRANGE COINCIDENCE.

A Pistol Goes Off and the Ball Comes Near the Same Day of the Week and Month.

Mr. Bertron and His Husband Die on the Same Day of the Week and Month.

There is a strange story connected with the death of Mrs. Bertron, who was buried at death night before Christmas.

Mrs. Bertron's death occurred on Wednesday the seventeenth day of the month, and her husband also died on Wednesday the seventeenth day of the month. Mr. Bertron died at a quarter past seven o'clock in the evening and was attended and buried by his son, David, a grand master of Masons in Georgia, to whom will be tendered a reception and banquet by the united fraternity in Atlanta. Several prominent Masons from a distance will be present at the funeral. The members of the general assembly, who have been invited to attend, will make the occasion thoroughly enjoyable.

NEARLY A FATAL ACCIDENT.

A Pistol Goes Off and the Ball Comes Near the Same Day of the Week and Month.

Mr. Bertron and His Husband Die on the Same Day of the Week and Month.

There is a strange story connected with the death of Mrs. Bertron, who was buried at death night before Christmas.

Mrs. Bertron's death occurred on Wednesday the seventeenth day of the month, and her husband also died on Wednesday the seventeenth day of the month. Mr. Bertron died at a quarter past seven o'clock in the evening and was attended and buried by his son, David, a grand master of Masons in Georgia, to whom will be tendered a reception and banquet by the united fraternity in Atlanta. Several prominent Masons from a distance will be present at the funeral. The members of the general assembly, who have been invited to attend, will make the occasion thoroughly enjoyable.

Something New in Art.

Goupl has just sent us another very select assortment of steel engravings for the holidays, and we have the most artistic stock of antique bronze and natural wood mounted that we have ever had. We also manufacture a special man to get up designs for frames and frame our engravings with the latest style heavy mats, which is very latest thing for engravings.

Pritchard's Art Store, 28 Whitehall St.

LA GRANGE ACCOMMODATION.

Leave Atlanta 4:00 p.m.

Arrive La Grange 7:00 p.m.

Leave La Grange 6:00 a.m.

Arrive Atlanta 4:00 a.m.

Leave Atlanta between Atlanta and New Orleans all trains.

Western railroad sleepers on trains 22 and 33 depart at 12:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. at Montgomery with trains for New Orleans.

M. GABERT, Gen'l Manager, Montgomery, Ala. W. C. CROWDER, G. P. A., Atlanta, Ga.

A. J. ORKIN, General Agent, Atlanta, Ga.

Candle Power Kerosene Lamps

Such one equals four gas jets and gives a light equal to 2000 square, so that reading can be done in the far distance.

Shades, Ealls and Churches, it is beyond comparison.

The Best Light in the World.

not live Agents wanted

For Circumstances

ALBA LIGHT CO.

Sole Manufacturers

Main Street, CHAMBERS, Ga.

THROUGH THE CITY

EVENTS OF INTEREST GATHERED UP ABOUT TOWN.

Happenings Here and There in the Course, at the Capital, Around the Station House and on the Street. Minor News Notes Caught Up on the Sidewalk. Gossip in the Gutters.

Eddie Ray, of Baltimore, is in the city.

The street sweeper moves every night now. Mayor-elect Hillyer's inaugural promises to be a fine one.

Demoralized water pipes will be abundant this morning.

Alderman Stockdell has returned from North Carolina.

Terry street citizens want some work on that thoroughfare.

The firemen are glad that they were not forced out yesterday.

There were three interments in Oakland cemetery yesterday.

A party of Atlantans will leave for New Orleans next Sunday.

The new theater was being set up at police headquarters yesterday.

The candidates for justice of the peace are mingling freely with the voters.

Already several business changes have been announced for the last of January.

The coal dealer was made happy yesterday. He said every thing was sold out.

Police traps applied at police headquarters for night for logging. They were accommodated.

Mr. S. H. Phelan has purchased Mr. A. O. May's place on Peachtree and not Captain Gay's place.

Patrolman Moon has been granted a leave of absence to visit his son, who is critically ill in Paulding county.

John Wilson, Elissa May and Co.'s engineer was much better yesterday. Dr. Bak thinks now that he will recover.

The Decatur street side of the Kimball house about fire again. The carpet laying will be continued next week.

Ernest White, the bootblack who shot another bootblack at the union passenger depot several days ago, is in Savannah.

Mayor-elect Hillyer has not yet perfected his committee. This statement is made for the benefit of the ward politician.

The city council will meet next Monday afternoon at three o'clock to investigate the election of Livingston Longley.

The two sets of pawned remittances received to the city 12:15 a.m. were found at 165 East Cain street and not at 161 East Harris street.

A bright train of forty-one cars blocked Whitehall street yesterday afternoon for twenty minutes by the watch. Is there no rule?

The people residing in the eastern portion of the city are highly delighted at the prospect of a bridge over the railroad tracks on Decatur street.

Saturday Inspector King yesterday received a letter from General Tige Anderson, once Atlanta's chief police, enclosing a photograph of the general's heir, a bright, beautiful child.

THE FEDERAL CONGRESS.

Fred Livingston Appointed to the Congressional District Delegates.

Hon. L. F. Livingston, president of the state agricultural society, is also the Georgia vice-president of the national farmer's congress.

It is reported that the state legislature does not appoint one delegate from each congressional district—the vice-president for the state may do so. At the request of Governor McDonald Colonel Livingston, on yesterday, made the following appointments:

Fifth district—Morgan Lewis.

Third district—J. A. Cobb.

Fourth district—J. M. Mobley.

First district—W. C. Jones.

Sixth district—Robert E. Park.

Second district—Pierce Horne.

Eleventh district—Samuel M. Smith.

Ninth district—J. M. Peeples.

Tenth district—J. Martin Calvin.

Half of the appointments are from the young farmers' club, and half are from the young farmers' club.

The annual election of officers for Fulton Lodge No. 216 Free and Accepted Masons occurred last night in the lobby room, corner of Broad and Marietta streets. The full membership nearly was present and the election results were decided by a unanimous vote.

The officers elected from the worshipful master to the tyler and warden were as follows:

W. M. Jas. Gray, W. Chas. F. Malone,

J. W. A. M. Law, Trosier, S. J. Stevenson,

W. J. G. O'Conor, S. J. John Law,

J. D. John S. Price, S. J. John E. Borromeo,

Tyler, Jacob Morris.

The reports of the committee and officers proved interesting and entertaining and were good things for the year. The new officers showed that the lodge is in a magnificent and flattering condition financially and otherwise and that the membership is constantly increasing and that those coming in are of the very best material. A pleasant event of the evening was the presentation of a portrait of the late member of life, Past Master.

The officers together with those who have been elected to the lodge are all in a magnificent and flattering condition financially and otherwise and that the membership is constantly increasing and that those coming in are of the very best material. A pleasant event of the evening was the presentation of a portrait of the late member of life, Past Master.

The new officers showed that the lodge is in a magnificent and flattering condition financially and otherwise and that the membership is constantly increasing and that those coming in are of the very best material. A pleasant event of the evening was the presentation of a portrait of the late member of life, Past Master.

The new officers showed that the lodge is in a magnificent and flattering condition financially and otherwise and that the membership is constantly increasing and that those coming in are of the very best material. A pleasant event of the evening was the presentation of a portrait of the late member of life, Past Master.

The new officers showed that the lodge is in a magnificent and flattering condition financially and otherwise and that the membership is constantly increasing and that those coming in are of the very best material. A pleasant event of the evening was the presentation of a portrait of the late member of life, Past Master.

The new officers showed that the lodge is in a magnificent and flattering condition financially and otherwise and that the membership is constantly increasing and that those

H. L. KIMBALL, L. B. WHEELER & CO.,
ARCHITECTS
Constitution Building.

Firing and Gilding China for Amateurs
At Lyell's Art School, 67½ Whitehall street, LONDON IN ALL BRANCHES. ARTISTS' MATE-RIALS, etc. Write for Circum-

10th tri

COTTON AND WEATHER

DAILY WEATHER REPORT.
OBSERVER'S OFFICE SIGNAL CORPS, U. S. A.
U. S. CUSTOM HOUSE, December 18, 10:31 P.M.
All observations taken at the same moment of time at each place named.

NAME OF STATION.	BAROMETER	Thermometer	Wind.	Rainfall.	Weather
Atlanta	30.0315	71 N W Fresh	(0) Clear.
Atlanta	30.0315	70 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	69 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	68 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	67 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	66 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	65 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	64 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	63 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	62 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	61 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	60 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	59 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	58 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	57 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	56 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	55 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	54 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	53 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	52 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	51 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	50 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	49 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	48 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	47 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	46 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	45 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	44 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	43 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	42 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	41 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	40 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	39 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	38 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	37 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	36 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	35 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	34 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	33 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	32 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	31 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	30 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	29 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	28 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	27 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	26 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	25 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	24 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	23 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	22 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	21 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	20 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	19 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	18 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	17 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	16 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	15 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	14 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	13 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	12 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	11 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	10 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	9 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	8 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	7 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	6 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	5 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	4 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	3 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	2 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	1 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	0 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-1 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-2 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-3 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-4 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-5 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-6 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-7 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-8 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-9 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-10 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-11 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-12 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-13 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-14 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-15 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-16 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-17 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-18 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-19 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-20 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-21 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-22 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-23 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-24 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-25 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-26 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-27 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-28 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-29 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-30 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-31 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-32 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-33 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-34 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-35 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-36 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-37 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-38 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-39 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-40 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-41 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-42 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-43 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-44 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-45 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-46 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-47 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-48 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-49 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-50 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-51 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-52 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-53 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-54 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-55 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-56 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-57 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-58 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-59 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-60 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-61 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-62 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-63 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-64 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-65 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-66 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-67 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-68 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-69 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-70 N W Fresh	(0) Cloudy.
Atlanta	30.0315	-71 N W Fresh</			